

HÜSEYİN MUŞMAL

Selçuk University, Turkey

THE INCIDENTS OF VIOLENCE TO WOMAN AND ABORTION
ACCORDING TO COURT RECORDS OF KONYA AT THE FIRST HALF OF XVIII. CENTURY

Abstract:

The study that called as the incidents of violence to women and abortion according to court records of Konya at the first half of XVIII. Century, in general scale aims to investigate view of man to woman in family in Ottoman Public. Besides, it targets determination of difference of man and woman's attitudes and behaviors in the scale of case that was seen in court records particularly in Konya.

As unspoken topic, there are cases that pregnant women demanded punishment or purchase Money when they aborted or gave premature birth after argument and beating. Particularly this study aims to investigate determination of historical bound of leaning about violence to woman; and in generally, aims to investigate view of man to woman in example of Konya public in Konya city which was one of the biggest city of Anatolia in Ottoman Empire era and even now is between the biggest cities of Republic of Türkiye and is known with conservative side, by using these cases.

Keywords:

Woman / Konya / Ottoman